Structure of the Order of the Silver Serpent

The Community is organized in eight sections. Each Section is lead by an appropriate Section Leader. Six of the eight sections are clearly defined, the other two are not officially named but are part of the structure as it's ending points.

A brief explanation of the structure is provided here, for more details and role profile of each section please refer to the proper chapter.

As such, at one end we have the Civilian Section, this includes all merchants, artisans, craftsmen and craftswomen. The Virtue symbolizing this section is Sacrifice.

The Six following sections are all in the same ranking, and each has a different mission profile added to the General mission of the Organization. Young Individuals wishing to enter one of these sections, depending on their experience start as Guards or Squires. Experienced Individuals or Graduates from any renown School of the Realm, such as BTF/WYU, enter in the First Circle of Nobility in the Section of their Choice. The Six Sections are briefly presented here in no particular order.

The Sages Section: Lead by the Hierophant, is made up of the Sages and Philosophers that have as mission the proliferation of the Virtues, they act as the "Voice of the Virtues".

The Virtue symbolizing this section is Humility.

The Inquisitor's Section:

Lead by the High

Inquisitor, is made up of the Mantra Inquisitors

and Inquisitors that have as mission to Investigate
